

Bachelor of Theology (15 classes)

Bachelor of theology students may choose an emphasis in pastoral studies, counseling, missions and evangelism, or worship leadership.

Students must have a degree in biblical studies or the equivalent of 60 hours of lower division courses. An AA degree from an accredited Christian or secular college is sufficient. Send in your application and a copy of your transcripts for evaluation.

Fifteen courses are required of the 16 listed below for a bachelor of theology. A practicum may be required if a student is going into ministry and has no experience. Practicums are conducted under the authority of a reputable ministry leader in your hometown.
